

Ken Wong, the creator and designer of the Kitschy Katz collection, is an accomplished professional photographer and upon graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree in photography from Art Center College of Design in Pasadena, he opened his own photography studio in the Los Angeles area in 1981. The idea of Kitschy Katz came from discussions he had with a fellow artist who sold cat paintings. And after several designs, Ken finally created his ideal model – a Kat that embodied an art deco design with the elegance and lines of the feline form.
