

JACK MISSELBROOK

Lilliput Lane Sculptor

Born in Barking in 1974, Jack lived in the London borough of Dagenham until the age of eighteen. He attended Mayesbrook School until 1990, before going on to Barking College of Technology where he achieved a First Diploma in Art & Design and then a National Diploma in Technical Illustration.

In 1993, Jack continued his studies at University at the North East Wales Institute in Wrexham, graduating with an HND in Technical Illustration.

For the next few years, Jack managed a local pub, and it was during this period that he met his future wife. When she completed her studies she moved back to Cumbria and Jack followed her north!

Jack got a job with Enesco, as a painter for Border Fine Arts, and started painting for Lilliput Lane a short time later. He had been a painter for eighteen months when he saw a trainee sculptor's job advertised and thought he would 'give it a go'! Since then, he has travelled the world demonstrating his skills to collectors.

Jack is married, a father of three, and lives in Wigton, Cumbria. His hobbies include reading, cinema, and horse riding, and for several years he was a Special Police Constable for the Cumbria Constabulary.
