

Whispers – the brand new ‘Angelic’ range from Department 56

Whispers is an enchanting new collection designed by Kristi Jensen Pierro, the talented artist behind the popular Snowbabies range. Inspired by the idea of angels whispering heartfelt messages of hope and happiness, the delicately modelled and subtly decorated figurines make delightful gifts for friends and family. Kristi explains more, ‘Sometimes it’s difficult to broach sensitive subjects but these heavenly Whispers gently convey praise and support.’

Every figurine holds a tag simply incised with one word expressing sentiments such as love, faith or hope, and the angel’s pose animates the message adding intensity and meaning. For example, Faith Angel is holding her hands in prayer, Dream Angel is making a wish, and Guardian Angel is modelled with a young child emphasising protective care and unending love.

Exquisite finishing touches such as sheer glittery wings, soft silver crowns and incised motifs combining stylised flowers, leaves and birds add softness and grace to each figurine.
