

Hulk to join the Incredible Marvel Collection from BFA

Appropriately, given the incredible personality of the Marvel comic character, Hulk, the incredible skills of the Border Fine Arts (BFA) artists in the Scottish Borders have been harnessed in the creation of figurines of the super hero for the prestigious Marvel Collection.

Hulk is the fourth character to join the series of limited editions, and all the figurines are based on artwork from the Marvel Comic Books. Hulk's impressive strength and distinctive persona as a 'living engine of destruction' has inspired UK sculptor Peter Mook, in conjunction with the BFA design team, to model a truly awesome figurine.

Depicted punching his way through a brick wall, Hulk, who can use his huge strength for good as well as evil, will be issued in a limited edition of 500. Each figurine will be individually made and painted by hand by the talented artisans in BFA's UK studios, ensuring every detail is impeccably completed.
