

Join the 'Winter Carnival' with Snowbabies®

With each and every figurine or hanging ornament in the Snowbabies range you can celebrate the magic and wonder of winter — and never more so than with the new 'Winter Carnival' figurines being launched this January.

You can really feel the excitement in the air as our lovable cherub-like characters with rosy cheeks and sparkling blue eyes frolic in a festive snow ride with a host of festive animal friends.

Each new character features intricately carved stitching embellishment design and sparkling gemstones add a twinkle of glamour. They are further enhanced by luxurious flocked detailing to their clothing, adding charm and texture to the porcelain bisque figurines.

Two further new introductions complete the January launch, both feature a polar bear: 'The Young Polar Prince' who gives his polar friend a bear hug, and 'Royal Cocoa' which features a polar bear who has his eye on a delicious tray of hot chocolate!
