

New Contemporary Classics For Dog Lovers

Building on the success since its launch in June 2013, Border Fine Arts proudly launched three striking new dog studies in its Contemporary Classics collection in Autumn 2015.

In the endearing dog figurines — a Pug, French Bulldog and Staffie (in two colourways) — the ethos of this remarkable collection is really upheld...as the emphasis on movement and character over anatomical realism is captured to stunning effect yet again.

'After being repeatedly asked for a study of a pug,' says Ray Ayres, Master Sculptor, 'I thought it would be a good opportunity to introduce some of our other favourite domestic dog breeds. After all, we are renowned as a nation of wildlife lovers — but perhaps more so for our love of dogs!'

All of our Contemporary Classics studies are entirely handmade in our Scottish Studios in Langholm and hand-painted by our highly-skilled artists — a provenance that speaks volumes for the quality of each and every piece.
