

Grace and Duncan...New Sheep in the Flock.

The latest two new sheep to join Toni Goffe's Ewe and Me 'fashionable' flock this June are both outdoorsy types.

Grace is wrapped up in her favourite quilted jacket, bright red welly boots and matching cosy bobble hat and looks more than ready for a day in the great outdoors!

Meanwhile, kitted out with sturdy walking boots and his trusty woolly hat, our handsome Herdwick, Duncan, is well prepared for a day of hiking in his native Lakeland Fells — where he's so at home he could just as easily be named heaf-Cliff!

What makes this popular range so enduring? Toni Goffe captures both humour and charm in each of his characters, all of whom are irresistible in their knitted outfits and colourful footwear — 'ewe've' got to agree!

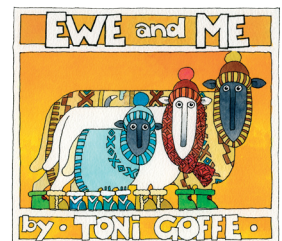

All Ewe and Me figurines are packaged in white glossy box with bright logo sticker.
