

New figurines join the Disney Traditions Collection as Jim Shore celebrates fifteen years with Enesco!

Two figurines, A Magical Moment and Catch The Wave, are added to the endearing Disney Traditions Collection; which combines the beauty and universal appeal of Disney characters with the artistry of Jim Shore's Heartwood Creek designs. This year, Jim Shore celebrates the fifteenth anniversary of his partnership with Enesco and his enchanting designs are inspired by the vibrant colours and motifs of American folk art.

In A Magical Moment, Mickey Mouse is portrayed on bended knee proposing to Minnie Mouse. The study doubles as a ring tray and additional details such as the heart shaped base, hand painted decoration mean every figurine is different, and the sparkling ring makes this a great gift for couples and Disney fans alike.

Celebrating another fifteenth anniversary, Catch The Wave marks the success of the popular film Lilo and Stitch. The figurine captures the joy of Disney's adventurous characters Lilo and Stitch as they surf the majestic Hawaiian seas and hand painted details including Jim Shore's trademark designs add humour and colour to the captivating scene.

Disney Traditions will be on display at the Enesco stand at the Spring Fair 5th-9th Feb 2017 NEC, Birmingham, Stand 4H80-J81.
