

New additions to DEMDACO's Kelly Rae Roberts Collection from Enesco

Tender messages of hope, love and peace are at the heart of DEMDACO's Kelly Rae Roberts giftware collection, available from Enesco and January 2014 sees several designs and shapes added to this appealing range, with a strong focus on delicate flower and butterfly motifs.

As well as new additions to the Wall Art selection offering different sizes and price points, there are three new figurines, with new floral patterns and butterfly wings. And a brand new format is also being launched — wooden blocks with paper artwork, including 'Love' and 'Heart' sculptures. 'Unleash your joy', 'Kindness changes everything' and 'I believe our hearts are never alone and love always wins' are just some of the expressive messages included in the new pieces.

Each design features Kelly's trademark layered, vibrant and intricate découpage style along with the compassionate and inspirational sentiments which are the hallmarks of her work.
