

Langholm Design celebrates bonds of friendship and love

Three new bronzed sculptures from Langholm Design are inspired by the maternal bond between mothers and their offspring – whether these be piglets, lambs or puppies – whilst a fourth design, Shepherd & Collies, celebrates the rapport existing between a shepherd and his dogs.

Langholm Design's modellers have captured the mood of each mother to perfection – in Sow & Piglets, a pig proudly stands to let her brood feed; Ewe & Lambs shows a patient ewe as one of her lambs finds a cosy seat on her back and the other feeds, whilst in Collie & Pups, the Collie is alert to her master's every command and eager to pass her knowledge to her pups.

Each of these contemporarily styled bronzed studies is handmade, from start to finish, by Border Fine Arts' highly skilled artists in Scotland. Several decorative processes are involved in creating each sculpture, including the repeated applications of a bronze powder to build up a lustrous depth of colour and tone.
