

Gorjuss™ by name and Gorgeous by nature – the new collectible that will speak to your heart.

Gorjuss™, a heart-warming collection of sweet and whimsical keepsakes licensed from Santoro, will be available from Enesco in 2014. Each gorgeous gift features an endearing stripy-socked girl, accompanied by classic children's toys, animals, plants or other natural imagery, and expresses sentiments that captivate the hearts of children and adults alike.

For each figurine, sculptors bring to life original Santoro's Gorjuss™ artwork, exquisitely replicating every fine detail and using a colour palette of rose pinks, ruby reds, sapphire blues and sea greens to express the warm emotion of the drawings. Amongst the 12 new figurines is The White Rabbit, a dreamy girl with an oversized pocket watch, whilst the enchanting Ruby, day-dreaming as she lovingly strokes her pet cat, is available both as a figurine and a money bank.

Enesco's new plates portray the serene, striped-sock wearing Gorjuss™ girls in four captivating compositions; on horseback riding dreamily through the night sky, wrapped up against the winter's cold with woodland companions, balanced precariously on a stack of books and in a romantic reverie.

Beautifully packaged and complete with a gift card for a personal message, every Santoro's Gorjuss™ gift is a treasure destined to be cherished for a lifetime.
