

Time for Tea — with Lilliput Lane's Collectors' Club

Hand made and hand painted in Britain, Lilliput Lane has chosen a quintessentially English theme for the 2014/15 Club Exclusives — tea rooms!

Ah! Who doesn't love the idea of taking the afternoon off and driving into the country to find a quaint tea room to partake of some scrumptious treats? Well, Lilliput Lane have chosen three most delightful examples that are sure to take you right there!

The Symbol of Membership cottage, Alfresco Tea Rooms is situated in the pretty Broads village of Ludham and is famed for its afternoon teas served with leaf tea no less! Grade II Listed, this most attractive tea room dates back to the eighteenth century and is free to new and renewing Members during this Club year.

The two new Member-only Cottages are: The Comfy Pew, a 'friendly, family-run licensed Tea Room in the heart of Gloucester's historic Westgate Quarter' and The Dabbling Duck, a delightful tea room in the picturesque village of Shere, which was chosen, not just for its charm, but for historical interest too — as it was designed by the eminent architect, Sir Edward Lutyens.

All pieces are exclusive to Club Members. The Club year runs from 1st March 2014 to 28th February 2015.
