

New James Herriot Figurines Inspired by Tales of the World's Favourite Vet

James Herriot became famous throughout the world for his books that captured the essence of life in England's Yorkshire Dales in the 1930s and 40s and Border Fine Arts has been reproducing favourite scenes from his stories for many years now in the form of highly detailed figurines and home accessories.

Three fabulous new lifelike figurines are being added to this most popular collection for January 2014. Each piece is hand crafted and hand painted bringing to life the humour and characters from the tales of the world's favourite vet.

The figurines are: Patience (pictured), Morning Encounter, a calf and fox cub (available as Black and White or Brown and White calf) and That's My Mam, a chick that discovers a duckling with its mum (available as Light Sussex or Rhode Island Red hen).

All Herriot figurines are supplied in a branded, colour gift box.
