

Langholm Design, Contemporary Product Handmade in the Scottish Borders.

Showcasing the talents of Border Fine Arts' renowned craftsmen and women, Langholm Design builds on over thirty years of technical and artistic expertise in the giftware manufacturing and moulding industry, bringing you stunning, eye-catching collections in a range of different materials and finishes to suit any taste and décor, traditional or contemporary.

Six new bronze figurines are being introduced in the June 2015 launch which include: 'Highland Bull', 'Highland Cow' and 'Highland Calf' — which make up an appealing family group, as do, 'Sitting Fox' and 'Fox Cubs' — the final piece is an 'Alert Hare'.

The bronzing effect of these figurines is achieved by coating the casting first with a black etching coating, then dusting the surface with a bronze powder suspended in a clear xylene enamel. Once dry, certain areas are highlighted further with the bronze powder until the item matches the exacting standards set by our designers.

Langholm Design...designs for living, designed for you!
