

New...Eco-friendly Peter Rabbit™ and Flopsy Bunny™ Bamboo Dinner Sets

Border Fine Arts has been producing The World of Beatrix Potter™ products since being granted the licence in 1987, since then this popular collection has grown to include many different formats, but January 2016 sees an exciting, brand new format being introduced — with a new range of Eco-friendly children's dinner sets.

The two dinner sets — one featuring Peter Rabbit™ and the other, Flopsy Bunny™ — both include a plate, bowl, tumbler, spoon and fork — all made from bamboo melamine and packaged in recycled craft card packaging, making thoughtful gifts to appeal to the eco-minded gift giver.

Other highlights of the new introductions for January 2016 include a brand new range of ceramic Alphabet Mugs, all featuring delicate decals taken from the new style guide; plus a delightful Sir Issac Newton mini figurine, the first time that this character has been portrayed in this popular collection.
