

Farm Animals take centre stage in the new Kitchy & Co Home Décor Collection

This new Kitchy & Co home décor collection of figurines, trivets, chopping boards, mugs and coasters is inspired by the witty and colourful photographs taken 'down on the farm' by Anthea Kitching. The imagery has a warm country style with a contemporary twist and the collection, now available from Border Fine Arts Studio, is expected to have wide appeal.

Anthea, a self-taught photographer and digital editor, specialises in creating captivating picture stories where animals are the stars. Growing up with farm animals and still working with them day in, day out, has given Anthea inside knowledge not just of their muddy habitats but their friendly personalities!

Animals are like family to Anthea and her skill in spotting the humour in their interactions shines through the fun and cheerful Kitchy & Co collection. The friendship of a lamb and a sheepdog is captured in the enchanting figurine Molly & Meg, whilst the set of six coasters brings together all the magical scenes in the launch collection.

All Kitchy & Co products, except figurines, are packaged in windowed kraft boxes so that their decorative appeal can be instantly identified.
