

Fresh watercolour style of Sarah Stokes extends BFA Contemporary Gift collection.

Artist Sarah Stokes' preferred medium is watercolour because of the luminosity and spontaneity that the style brings to her art. Her fresh and vibrant paintings of a Highland Cow, Fox and Pheasant have inspired the Sarah Stokes Collection of home and gift wares, all of which are exclusively available from BFA Contemporary Gift.

Sarah is a self-trained artist and has been painting since 2013. She is inspired by animals in their natural habitats – whether the forest, garden or countryside – and she uses the watercolour medium to add detail and colour to her work.

All products, from mugs and place mats to textiles such as scarves and cushions, will feature one of the three animals. By taking the subject's eyes as the focus of her art, Sarah adds an element of story-telling to each design, so the Fox's proud, wily nature is expressed along with the wistful humour of the Highland Cow and the exuberant character of the Pheasant.
