

Latest James Herriot Figurines Inspired by Tales of the World's Favourite Vet

Border Fine Arts' figurines have been delighting collectors for many years now with a range of hand-painted figurines that bring to life the humour and characters from the tales of the world's favourite vet.

The latest new introductions for January 2015 will not disappoint, as these two new figurines show: Three Little Piggies, features three adorable little piglets who have been bought at Market and are settling into their comfy new home; and Every Last Drop — which is available in two colourways: Friesian and Ayrshire — depicts two dairycalves who have knocked over their bucket of milk and are joined by the farm cat in helping to lick up 'every last drop'.

James Herriot became famous throughout the world for his books that captured the essence of life in England's Yorkshire Dales in the 1930s and 40s. All Herriot figurines are supplied in a colourful, branded gift box.
