

Double and triple appeal for Enchanting Disney!

Delightful figurines set to join the Enchanting Disney collection this summer include stunning double and triple studies featuring characters from the classic Disney films - The Little Mermaid and The Lion King. Inspired by iconic and magical moments in the films, each figurine is created with incredible attention to detail.

Isn't She a Vision shows the mermaid Ariel as she dances with Eric and the study captures the movement of her ball gown as she spins in his arms. Meanwhile, the fun and adventurous spirit of the Lion King is reflected in Hakuna-matata revealing the captivating Timon leading Pumbaa and Simba along a log whilst a double figurine portrays Rafiki proudly presenting the baby Simba as a new king.

Other launches to the collection will include Ursula the villainous Sea Witch from The Little Mermaid, and Mary Poppins (complete with her iconic umbrella and bag), which coincides with the upcoming film release of this classic story.
