

Mama Gourds join DEMDACO'S gift portfolio

The whimsical Mama Gourds collection designed by Californian artist, Lisa Meehan, will be available from Enesco from June 2015. Each of the fifteen colourful pieces is inspired by natural forms and by Lisa's unique and playful interpretations of the world.

In her previous life based in the city and before motherhood, Lisa Meehan was a commercial artist but, since moving to the Californian countryside and raising a family, her lifestyle and art has changed. Now her art is inspired by materials that are recycled and by vegetables such as gourds, grown on the three acres she calls home.

For the Mama Gourds collection, Lisa enhances each generously rounded shape with boldly coloured decorations such as stripes, dots and frills and with witty sayings to create each expressive figurine. Pieces such as 'I'm the Queen' and the 'Sitting Cat' tell an amusing story, conjure up a memory or send out an invitation to smile.
