

Fabulous New Animal Studies from Border Fine Arts Studio

It's the attention to detail and authenticity of the natural scenes of each hand painted Border Fine Arts Studio piece that ensures that it is of the highest quality and delivers the utmost appeal to collectors and gift-givers alike.

January 2014 delivers more fabulous new figurines to this highly popular range, including two wonderful Jack Russell studies, both featuring this loveable breed getting up to mischief! Popular, as much as pets as for working dogs, the unique personality and character of these extremely energetic dogs has been captured in these appealing figurines.

Pictured here are the three new animal figurines inspired by our native wildlife and domestic beasts. Both the Hare and the Stag are enigmatic creatures with great allure, whilst the characterful Donkey will be a great addition to the collection.

Each item comes in branded gift box packaging.
