One Christmas evening, a group of friends set off to enjoy a dinner of celebration at a small country inn nestled in a quiet river town. As they rounded a bend in the road, they saw the small, old-fashioned village decorated for the holidays. The lights, like fairies, glowed and sparkled amid the freshly fallen snow. All evening, the conversation was full of Christmas memories and the visions the tiny town had evoked. Amidst the jovial banter and magical memories, the idea for a lighted Christmas village was born. That spark of an idea became a reality when, in 1976, Department 56 introduced a series of six hand-painted, ceramic buildings. The rest is history.

POSSIBLE DREAMS®

Since 1985, Department 56 has brought us the iconic Christmas figurine in the shape of Possible Dreams Santa Claus! But this year, someone new is stepping into Santa's fur-lined boots — none other than The Grinch from Dr. Seuss's classic 'How The Grinch Stole Christmas'.

6001338 Naughty or Nice?

Height: 30.5cm

 Fabric, resin

Presented in classic Possible Dreams style — a combination of resin, fabric and mixed media — The Grinch is ready to be naughty! But Who-ville resident Cindy-Lou Who is doing her best to persuade him otherwise.

POSSIBLE DREAMS®

Possible Dreams is proud to present these scenes from animated classic 'The Nightmare Before Christmas', beautifully rendered in mixed media including Clothtique fabric, resin and ribbon.

Pumpkin King Jack Skellington strides across the rooftops, unaware that his idea of Christmas will not be quite what is expected! Jack and Zero Deliveries captures the essence of the scene perfectly. Zero's pumpkin nose glows in the dark too!

Jack joins Sally for a romantic stroll through the cemetery, closely followed by trusty Zero.

*"My dearest friend, if you don't mind
I'd like to join you by your side
Where we can gaze into the stars
And sit together, now and forever
For it is plain as anyone can see
We're simply meant to be"*
