

Say How You Feel with Gifts for the Family, from Colorful Devotions

A cohesive array of uniquely finished, functional and decorative gifts, DEMDACO's Colorful Devotions from Enesco combines messages of love, friendship, encouragement and inspiration with a cheerful collection of artful gift products.

As the name suggests, vibrant patchworks of colours and patterns are accompanied by sentiments that say exactly how you feel to those you love with this range of unique frames, chalkboards, wall art, and other decorative accents.

Two new pieces of Wall Art are being launched in January 2014, both are made from MDF and canvas and are definitely family orientated: Home is Where the Heart Is and God Bless Our Family.

As an artist, Holly Christine Moody loves to surround herself with bright colours and finds that through art, she is able to truly relax. 'I want my art to be a bright spot in people's homes that reminds them to have hope, have faith and embrace love.' And these two new wall arts should do just that!
