

Disney's Cinderella joins Border Fine Arts' A Moment in Time Collection

A limited edition figurine of Cinderella is to join the prestigious Border Fine Arts' A Moment in Time collection. Celebrating 65 years since the launch of the original Disney movie and coinciding with the live-action film, retelling the ever-popular fairy tale, this Cinderella figurine is made and painted entirely by hand in the UK.

Each tableau is inspired by iconic scenes from favourite Disney films. For this special study, Border Fine Arts' design director, Ray Ayres, and renowned sculptor Peter Mook, have recreated the magical moment when the Fairy Godmother's spell transforms Cinderella's ripped dress into an enchanting ball gown to wear to the Royal Ball.

The beautiful sculpture is full of exquisite detail, from the wand in the Fairy Godmother's hand to Cinderella's delicate glass slippers. Every figurine, in the worldwide edition of 250, is individually and lovingly crafted by expert artists in the Border Fine Arts studio in Langholm in the Scottish Borders.
