

Something sweet to share from Classic Pooh by Enesco

Winnie the Pooh and his friends from the 100 Acre Wood have enchanted generations of readers, and all the charm of the characters and the humour of their innocent adventures are reflected in Enesco's Classic Pooh collection. Set to join the range for summer 2014 are an ornamental water ball, photo frame and a musical box playing the soothing Brahms's Lullaby. In addition, the new porcelain mug and plate snack set, featuring Pooh and Piglet settling down for something sweet to eat, is certain to captivate the youngest members of the household.

Decorated in soft and fresh colours selected to appeal to babies and toddlers, the water ball, photo frame and musical box are enhanced by adorable models of Pooh and Piglet, which reflect the texture and classic appearance of knitted soft toys.

Balancing contemporary styles with a sense of nostalgia, the Classic Pooh collection brings the timeless and fun loving spirit of A. A. Milne's stories to the home.
