

Two New Adorable 'Ewe and Me' Characters from Toni Goffe

Toni Goffe's award-winning art is collected worldwide, and his humorous characters have inspired numerous successful collections. Take his Ewe and Me collection for example: 'ewe've' got to admire the concept, but it was actually Toni Goffe's wife who suggested knitting woollies for some shorn sheep she'd seen shivering in a field, and that's all it took for Toni's fertile imagination to run wild!

The result is an irresistible collection of sheep sporting knitted jumpers, scarves, hats and boots, as well as patriotic sheep wearing their national flags. Each beautifully hand-painted addition to the range has its own distinct personality and style.

The latest two new sheep to join his 'fashionable' flock this January are Poppy, looking pretty in pink and Jacob, who, in his cosy attire and gorgeous sheep slippers, looks ready for bed!

All figurines are packaged in white glossy box with bright logo sticker.
